Page 55, paragraph 4, lines 6–7: Change

“The absence of images, as in an earlier paper by Salgado (2006), attracted no attention as there were no images of the thrush.”

to:

“An earlier paper by Salgado (2006), with a single smallish image that may very well be a Malayan whistling thrush, failed to attract much attention. Thus the need for large, crisp images in cases of difficult species cannot be over-emphasised.”
